

25th July – Sixth meeting of the year for the Over Peover branch.

The President Mrs June Leach opened the Meeting and welcomed 28 Members. There was no singing of Jerusalem on this occasion.

The speaker Joanne Halliwell spoke about being “Lady of the House.” She played a character named Betsy who was a Scullery Maid. Betsy joined a choir and although shy she started to sing solo parts. This took her to singing for injured soldiers at a convalescence home. She eventually married and became Lady of the House. It was a delightful story.

The business meeting was then held;

8 apologies were noted. Matters then turned to recent and upcoming events;
